

The ownership rules now in place have been a disaster. You should be moving away from allowing consolidation. Media ownership is far too concentrated now. This proposal is so outrageous it can't be seriously considered, let alone adopted. thank you